

About CatholicCare

CatholicCare is the social services agency of the Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney. For over 80 years, we have walked in solidarity with individuals, families and communities to realise our vision of a society where everyone is valued and supported.

Our services help people thrive at every age. With over 70 programs delivered across Sydney, we assist with relationships, parenting, ageing, disability, addiction and mental health concerns.

Our Mission is to promote dignity, strengthen families and connect communities while supporting those most vulnerable or in need.

www.catholiccare.org

CatholicCare Sydney Respecting Your Privacy

How we protect your personal information

Privacy Notice

Information collected

CatholicCare collects personal information concerning staff and service users.

This information is only collected where necessary. CatholicCare may use the information you give us for the purposes of:

- assessing what services you require and whether we can provide those services
- recording essential information for providing you with a service
- evaluating ongoing services provided to you
- assessing your application to become a volunteer or contractor or employee
- research and analysis
- sending you information about our programs, special events and fundraising programs

Where reasonably possible, CatholicCare will only collect information from the individual to whom it relates.

Frequently this will be collected from interviews with you but it may also be collected from email, letters or other forms of communication.

Use and disclosure of information collected

Your personal information is only collected where it is necessary to carry out a particular function or administrative activity. Personal information collected for a particular purpose will not be used for any other purpose, unless you would reasonably expect the organisation to use or disclose the information for that purpose. Your personal information will only be disclosed to third parties with your consent, unless otherwise prescribed by law or in the case of a permitted general or health situation under Australian Privacy Principles 3 and 6.

Access to information collected

Upon request CatholicCare will provide you with access to personal information held about you. This enables us to ensure that information is accurate, relevant, up-to-date, complete and not misleading. If CatholicCare denies a request for access, a reason will be provided.

Security of information collected

CatholicCare is committed to maintaining a secure environment for all personal information collected, used or disclosed. CatholicCare will take all reasonable precautions to protect your information from loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure, alteration or destruction.

Personal information is retained no longer than is necessary. Access to either paper-based or digital records will only be granted to CatholicCare staff where there is a demonstrated need in accordance with that staff member's duties or responsibilities. CatholicCare is, however, required to provide access to information to a law enforcement agency or other government agency if such access is legally warranted in the course of an official investigation.

Anonymity, pseudonymity

Wherever legal and practical, you have the opportunity to deal with CatholicCare anonymously or through use of a pseudonym. This practice is best suited to the distribution of generic advice as individual circumstances are frequently required in order to respond effectively to more